Those appearing before the Court without video via Zoom that intend to testify will likely need to be in the presence of a notary public for the purposes of being identified and sworn in. Those appearing remotely by video via Zoom planning to testify should be prepared to furnish the Court with a picture identification such as their driver's license via video.

While the Court is not required to record all Zoom hearings, the parties may request the Court do so. It is the parties' responsibility to arrange for a Court Reporter to attend the hearing, if so desired.
