

UNLAWFUL DETAINER FORMS AND INSTRUCTIONS

Unlawful Detainer is a county court lawsuit filed pursuant to Florida Statute Chapter 82 requesting that another person be ordered to leave your property. It is similar to an eviction proceeding except that in an Unlawful Detainer case, there is no landlord/tenant relationship between the parties, i.e. there is no agreement to pay rent, either verbal or in writing. If there is an agreement to pay rent, you should consider filing an eviction case. Consult with an attorney if you are not sure.

The Unlawful Detainer should be used if:

- 1) You are trying to remove someone from your home, and
- 2) You have a legal right to reside in your home (You are the owner or the legal tenant), and
- 3) The person you are trying to remove does not have a legal right to reside in your home (they are not an owner or a legal tenant), and
- 4) There is no agreement for rent (verbal or in writing) between you and the person you are trying to remove.

The attached forms are designed for your use in the event there is no landlord/tenant relationship. These forms should be used if there is no residential lease or verbal agreement for rent. If you have a residential, commercial, agricultural, or personal property lease, you should consult with an attorney. No form should be used until you have carefully reviewed and understand the instructions preceding the form and you have reviewed Florida Statute Chapter 82.

At the time the complaint is filed, the Plaintiff must ask the Clerk of the Court to issue the summons. This is achieved by filing the completed summons with the Complaint for Unlawful Detainer.

You will also need the following:

- 1) Filing fee of $185.00
- 2) Summons Issue fee of $10.00 per summons, per defendant
- 3) One (1) original and (1) copy of each document (not including instructions) in the packet for each defendant (Complaint, Summons, Non-Military Affidavit)
- 4) Payment for the filing fee & summons fee must be paid by Cash, Money Order, Cashier's Check, or Business/Personal check with Photo ID of the signor of the check

You will need to contact a Process Server from the approved Process Server list (available in our office) for the service of your Summons packet

The Defendant will have five (5) days after service (this excludes the date of service, weekends, and legal holidays) to file a written response to a complaint for unlawful detainer.

If the defendant fails to file a written response, you are entitled to a Final Judgment by Default.

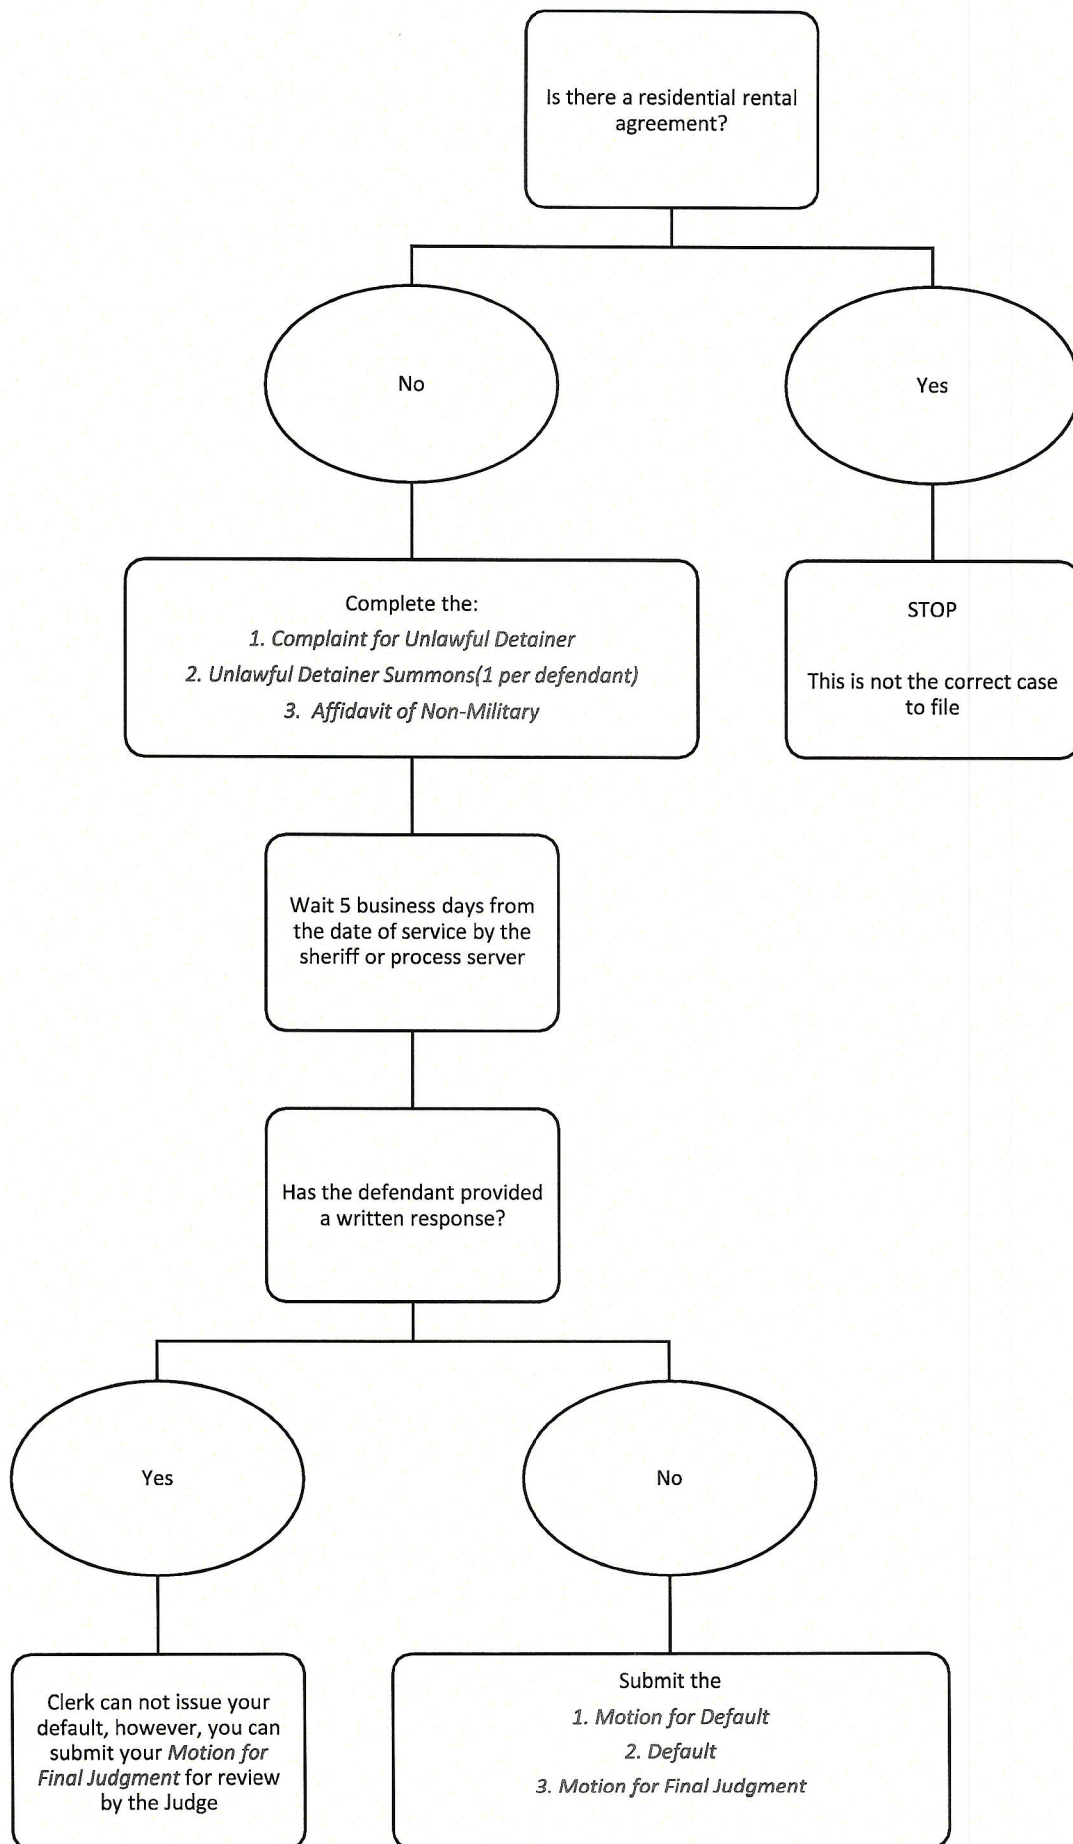

You will need to file the Motion for Clerk's Default and Motion for Default Final Judgment with the Clerk's Office.

If you filed your documents using e-filing, it is your responsibility to send the Motions and stamped envelopes to the Clerk's Office.

Once the judge has signed the Final Judgment, you may then request the Clerk to issue a Writ of Possession for service on the defendant(s)- if the defendant(s) has not already moved from the premises. You will then need to take the Writ of Possession to the Sheriff's Office and pay $90 per defendant to be served.

Contact the Civil Department at 904-548-4606 for further questions.

Please note that all forms and instructions are for informational purposes only and may not completely describe requirements of Florida law. You should consult an attorney as needed.
